To Whom It May Concern,

In January 2004, the 3rd Brigade Combat Team, 4th Infantry Division, had the distinct pleasure of hosting Mr. Dave Roever while we were deployed to Iraq in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. While there, Dave took the time to visit with our soldiers and was the motivational speaker for a very successful Prayer Luncheon.

Upon redeployment in May 2004, Dave and his wife Brenda traveled to Fort Carson, Colorado. Together they spoke to the soldiers of the entire brigade. In six sessions, with over 3,500 soldiers attending, the Roever's addressed key redeployment issues. Their presentation on how to readjust on a personal and relational level after combat helped our soldiers who recently redeployed to the United States. The soldiers found it very helpful to hear from them about how they were able to cope with the complexities that they faced in order to build an enduring relationship.

The Dave Roever visits were absolutely outstanding. He was the right person at the right time. He will continue to be a valuable resource for future events. By making a significant impact upon our soldiers, he established a renewed determination to overcome any challenges that life may bring.
